

Shannen Dee Williams

February 12, 2022---10:00 to 3:00

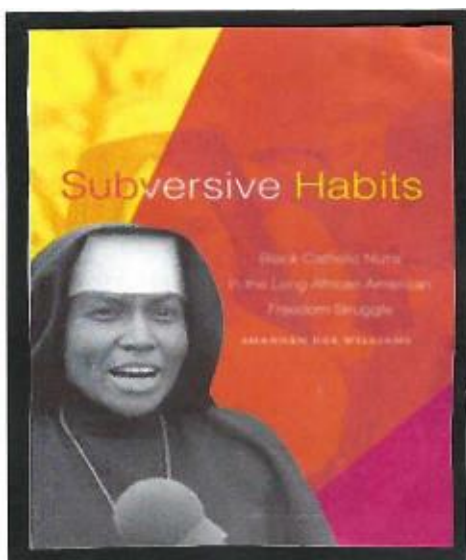

(Break for lunch—12:00-1:00)

VIRTUAL Black History Month Presentation

Sponsored by the Racial Justice Circle and CTA-MD

The morning session will focus on Dr. Williams's research on the often forgotten history of the Black Sister-hood and her forthcoming book: Subversive Habits: Black Catholic Nuns in the Long African American Freedom Struggle.

The afternoon session will open up a conversation on "The Historical Role of the Catholic Church in Slavery and the Need for Restorative Justice."

Dr. Shannen Dee Williams is Associate Professor of History at the University of Dayton. A renowned author-historian of the African American experience with research and teaching specializations in women's, religious, and Black freedom movement history. She has been featured in the Future Church series "Women Witnesses for Racial Justice."

Event is free, but you must register at shorturl.at/aiwDJ
